SENATOR FOWLER: With adoption of the Committee amendment the bill is not very far reaching. As I explained to Senator Schmit, it is to make it clear. Some city attorneys have asked for backup authority in the state statutes so their communities can implement the Federal Community Development Act.

It's kind of a long-standing thing in the Legislature that communities will proceed, often times implementing federal legislation, be a little nervous about that and would want some authority from the Legislature ... a clear statement from the Legislature that it's okay for them to do this. They would very much appreciate passage of this bill.
